

IISH

Lecture Series

CRUQUIUSWEG 31
1019AT AMSTERDAM

Work and labour relations deeply influence how we live. The International Institute of Social History (IISH) examines how these relations develop globally over time.

To conduct this historical research and support other researchers, we collect archives and data from all over the world.

IISH lectures are organized every first tuesday of the month at the IISH. At 15h00, the lecture takes place in the Posthumus Room, with drinks in the Vide afterwards.

The lecture is open to the public, but we would like you to register with Jacqueline Rutte, jacqueline.rutte@bb.huc.knaw.nl.
